Dear Mrs. Peppard,

On behalf of the European Society of Oncology Pharmacy (ESOP) I am happy to declare that ESOP will endorse the European Statements of Hospital Pharmacy.

We hope that our support would help EAHP to move forward with the implementation of the statements throughout the Europe.

The European Society of Oncology Pharmacy, founded in 2000 in Prague, is the largest organisation of oncology pharmacists in the world. We are a membership-based society with about 3500 members from 52 countries. Our mission is to support optimal treatment for cancer patients.

ESOP aims to develop and promote clinical and oncology pharmacy practice through

- i) education and training
- ii) safe handling and administration of drugs
- iii) implementation of standardised quality management for oncology pharmacy throughout its member states
- iv) performing research and encouraging innovation in oncology pharmacy
- v) enhancing pharmaceutical patient care.

Furthermore, ESOP is dedicated to make information on knowledge and achievements in cancer treatment and activities available to the public. ESOP spreads information on oncology pharmacy by publications, professional activities as well as educational lectures and seminars.
