

ICELAND

The Hospital Pharmacy Group within
The Pharmaceutical Society of Iceland

12th year as a EAHP member country (2013-2024)

- Hospital Pharmacy Group (4 board members)
 - 73 members / 50 hospital pharmacists. Oncology subgroup: 14 members
- New fulltime employed president of LFI, pushing forward with various projects to make pharmacists more visible in the community and engage in discussions on medicines.

EAHP events and projects: Active participation

- 6th EAHP Synergy Certification Program in Stockholm, Sweden 1-2 February 2024 “Providing hospital pharmacy services to patients receiving advanced care in their own home”
- FMD delegate, Shortages and procurement delegate, CTF delegation
- Statement Ambassador
- Surveys
- Online meetings
- Communication with members

Oncology Pharmacy Subgroup:

- ESOP events and projects: Active delegates and project participation
- MASHA project - Research about Environmental Contamination by Cytotoxics
- And Management of Safe Handling Procedures
- ECOP6 - European Congress of Oncology Pharmacy in Lisbon October 2024. 2 abstracts and posters
- EUSOP - European Specialization in Oncology Pharmacy. 3 pharmacists studying.

Landspítali - The National University Hospital of Iceland

- Increasing number of hospital pharmacists
- New large project 2022: CATO - (Computer Aided Therapy for Oncology). First Closed loop medication system (plan, prescribe, validate, prepare, administration) - more hospitals to follow
- Preparations for a new hospital 2025-2026 <https://en.nlsh.is/>
- MSc in Clinical Pharmacy - University of Iceland and UCL School of Pharmacy ongoing 3 year study with work. 2-4 students pr year