Public Transport access

Metro stop: Vyšehrad Metro line C (Red line) – Download Map

The Prague Congress Centre is adjacent to the Vyšehrad station (Exit platform Direction Háje) on Line C (Red Line) of the Prague underground railway network, providing convenient access by public transport from the city's airport and all major rail and bus stations.

Vaclav Havel International Airport is located approximately 20 km northwest of the city centre. The Airport is served either by public bus or taxi/Uber.

From the Airport

Take bus no. 119 (which runs every 10 minutes) to station Veleslavin, Metro station (Line A).

Take Metro Line A (direction Skalka) to the Muzeum; change to Line C (direction Haje).

Exit at the stop Vysehrad (the second stop from the Muzeum).

The Prague Congress Centre is next to the Metro station Vysehrad.

By bus and metro, the journey takes approximately 45 minutes.

Travelling by public transport requires prior purchase of a ticket which you must validate when you enter.

For the journey from the Airport to the PCC, a single transfer ticket is required.

The ticket is valid for 75 minutes after marking.

During the off-peak hours (20:00. to 05:00 on working days and all day Saturdays and Sundays) the ticket validity is lengthened to 90 minutes.

By taxi/Uber

By taxi/Uber, the Prague Congress Centre is 30 minutes away from the Airport. The price for a taxi/Uber should not be higher than approximately 700 CZK (€ 25).

For the Taxi Service, make sure to agree on the price before starting the ride. Credit cards are not accepted. Cash is the only means of payment. ATMs are available at airports arrival.

For Uber, please use the App.

Parking

Parking is available in the Prague Congress Centre's underground car park, or above ground on the southern side of the complex.
